

STIRLING OBSERVER
25 AUGUST 2016
C: 7,885

Students meeting

Talented students from across Forth Valley will be recognised at a ceremony in Stirling this week.

Those who graduated from the Diageo Learning for Life programme will meet at the Golden Lion Hotel on Friday.

The programme is a hospitality and bartending course which aims to give unemployed young people the chance to improve their career prospects.

Since it was launched two years ago 650 young people have graduated across Scotland and secured permanent roles in the hospitality and bartending sectors.

